0.2 Introduzione

Reddit è una piattaforma gratuita di social news, intrattenimento e forum che permette ai suoi utenti di discutere di qualsiasi argomento (anche detto topic) in uno delle sue tantissime categorie chiamate subreddit.

E' stato fondato il 23 giugno del 2005 a Medford da Steve Huffman e Alexis Ohanian e a febbraio del 2018 contava ben 542 milioni di utenti al mese.

Le funzioni che reddit mette a disposizione degli utenti sono quelle di poter postare un topic in un desiderato subreddit che rispecchia l'argomento principale discusso nel post, commentare sotto quest'ultimi ed inoltre permette di fare degli upvote e dei downvote dei post e dei commenti.

Il numero di vote permette agli utenti di capire quanto l'argomento trattato dal post sia interessante e popolare, inoltre tramite i filtri provvisti dalla piattaforma è possibile anche ordinare i post visualizzati in base al numero di vote.

Documentazione Reddit API Per poter utilizzare tutte le API provviste da Reddit è necessario l'utilizzo di un token tramite OAuth 2, quindi sarà necessario creare un'account utente nella piattaforma nonchè seguire una serie di regole provviste da Reddit. Reddit API Access

0.3 Profilo e Applicazione

0.3.1 Creazione di un profilo utente

Iniziamo col creare un proprio profilo utente.

Per fare ciò è semplicemente necessario dirigersi sul sito di Reddit: https://reddit.com

Dopodichè basta cliccare sul buttone SignUp cerchiato nella seguente schermata:

Fatto questo apparirà una finestra dove sarà necessario seguire gli step proposti dove verranno richiesti le informazioni necessarie a reddit per creare il profilo. Di seguito ci sono le varie schermate per la creazione profilo utente. Fatto ciò basterà verificare l'account tramite il link che arriverà nell'email utilizzata e successivamente potremo collegarci al profilo tramite la piattaforma utilizzando le credenziali specificate.

0.4 API keys

0.4.1 Condizioni d'uso pt. 1

Per utilizzare le API avremo bisogno di creare un'applicazione tramite il seguente link: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSezNdDNK1-P8mspSbmtC2r86Ee9ZRbC66u929cG2GX0T9UMyw/viewform

Il link ci porterà in un modulo google da compilare dove potremo leggere tutti i termini che stiamo accettando per l'utilizzo delle API ed inoltre ci verranno richieste alcune cose riguardo il nostro utilizzo delle reddit's API nonchè altre informazioni generali. In particolare ci verrà richiesto un OAUTH Client ID(s)

0.4.2 Creazione applicazione

Per ottenere un OAUTH Client ID(s) sarà necessario creare un'applicazione come mostrato nella figura sottostante. Una volta compilati i form richiesti basterà cliccare create app e la nostra applicazione sarà creata. Guardando la schermata sovrastante cerchiato in blu sarà il nostro OAUTH Client ID(s) mentre cerchiato in verde la nostra secret key.

0.4.3 Condizioni d'uso pt.2

Adesso che siamo riusciti ad ottenere l'OAUTH Client ID(s) possiamo finalmente inserirlo nel form ed inviarlo ottenendo la seguente schermata finale che ci conferma il completamento della richiesta.

0.5 Accesso alle API

0.5.1 Utilizzo di OAuth con Reddit

OAuth è un protocollo aperto, semplice e sicuro che consente alle applicazioni di autenticare gli utenti e di interagire con Reddit per conto loro. Le informazioni dell'utente finale vengono trasferite in modo sicuro, senza rivelarne l'identità. In Reddit utilizziamo il protocollo OAuth per verificare che l'applicazione interagisca con Reddit per conto tuo nel rispetto delle autorizzazioni che hai concesso.

0.5.2 Codice utile

In questa sezione verranno fornite e spiegate tutte le funzioni utili scritte in Python necessarie per poter utilizzare le API di Reddit.

Nel seguente blocco di codice ci sono due variabili globali (API key e API secret) che abbiamo ottenuto creando l'applicazione precedentemente e che saranno necessarie per poter utilizzare le API di reddit.

Inoltre saranno anche utili l'username e la password del nostro profilo creato sulla piattaforma.

```python
[1]: # Reddit api key KEY:str = "<API-KEY>"

     # Reddit api secret
     SECRET:str = "<API-SECRET>"

     # Reddit Profile's Username
     USERNAME:str = "<USERNAME>"

     # Reddit Profile's Password
     PASSWORD:str = "<PASSWORD>"

     # URL base
     URL = "https://oauth.reddit.com"

0.5.3 Access token

Qui usiamo la nostra key e la nostra secret key ottenute nella creazione dell'applicazione

```python
[2]: import requests

     auth = requests.auth.HTTPBasicAuth(KEY, SECRET)

Qui invece decidiamo di utilizzare come metodo di autenticazione la password ed inseriamo la nostra username e password.

Questo ci permetterà di usare più API provviste da reddit

```python
[3]: data = {'grant_type': 'password',
             'username': USERNAME,
             'password': PASSWORD}

Qui creiamo il nostro pacchetto http col metodo post e richiediamo il nostro access token a reddit

```python
[4]: # setup our header info, which gives reddit a brief description of our app headers = {'User-Agent': 'SocialMediaTutorial/0.0.1'}

     # send our request for an OAuth token res = requests.post('https://www.reddit.com/api/v1/access_token', auth=auth, data=data, headers=headers)

Dopodichè convertiamo la risposta in formato json, estraiamo l'access token e lo aggiungiamo all'header che utilizzeremo nelle chiamate RESTful

```python
[5]: TOKEN = res.json()['access_token'] headers = {headers, {'Authorization': f"bearer {TOKEN}"}}

Adesso che siamo riusciti ad ottenere l'access token possiamo finalmente utilizzare le API di reddit finchè quest'ultimo non scade (dura circa 2 ore)

0.6 Utilizzo delle API RESTful

0.6.1

Lista reddit's api al seguente link: Lista api

Reddit mette a disposizione una vasta lista di API che ci permettono di di fare di tutto, tra cui effettuare ricerche, commentare, votare e molto altro.

Di seguito verranno usate alcune di queste funzionalità per dare un esempio di come usarle.

0.6.2 GET /api/v1/me

Per verificare che l'access token sia valido effettuiamo un semplice test utilizzando GET /api/v1/me che ci ritorna l'identità dell'user

```python
[6]: res = requests.get(URL + "/api/v1/me", headers=headers) print(res)
```

<Response [200]>

Il test ha dato una risposta positiva con codice 200, dunque reddit ci ha risposto con dati strutturati alla nostra richiesta che contengono informazioni riguardo il nostro profilo reddit

0.7 POST /api/search_subreddits/

Questa funzione ci permette di, dato un valore query come parametro, cercare subreddits che abbiano all'interno del loro nome il valore da noi specificato

```python
[7]: import json
     res = requests.post(URL + '/api/search_subreddits/', headers=headers, ↪params={'query': 'funny'}) print(json.dumps(res.json(),indent=4))

     #Lunghezza
     print("Trovati " + str(len(res.json()['subreddits'])) + " subreddits con la ↪parola funny")

Trovati 9 subreddits con la parola funny

Come possiamo vedere dall'output sopra siamo riusciti a trovare ben 9 subreddits con la parola funny, inoltre reddit ci ha dato anche altre informazioni interessanti, tra cui ad esempio il numero di utenti attivi per ogni subreddit trovato.

0.8 GET /r/subreddit/about

Utilizzando questa chiamata reddit ci risponde con una lista di informazioni più specifiche ed amplie riguardo il subreddit indicato. Nell'esempio sottostante prenderemo solo la descrizione del subreddit e la stamperemo in output

[8]:  res = requests.get(URL + '/r/funny/about', headers=headers) print(res.json()['data']['description'])

Welcome to r/Funny:

1. All posts must make an attempt at humor.	Humor is subjective, but all posts must at least make an attempt at humor. Posts which are intentionally disruptive, inane, or nonsensical will be removed. Read more here.
2. No memes, HIFW, MRW, MeIRL, DAE, or similar posts.	If your submission begins with "When you…" or "When they…" or anything of a similar nature, it is not allowed here. Submissions depicting or containing intentionally emulated behaviors (memes) are also not allowed, including memetic image macros,
"challenges," or elements thereof. HIFW, MRW, TFW, MeIRL, demotivationals, eCards, and DAE posts are similarly disallowed. Non-meme image macros are allowed.
3. No reposts.	Reposts will be removed at the moderators' discretion. Serial reposters will be banned. Please use TinEye to determine if something has been submitted before.
4. No personal info, hate-speech, or harassment.	No identifying information, including anything hosted on platforms making that information public. Posts encouraging the harassment of any individual, group, community, or subreddit will be removed, and the submitting user may be banned. If necessary, a report will be made to the site administration. In accordance with Reddit's policies, there is zero tolerance for this.|

5. No politics or political figures.	Anything involving politics or a political figure (regardless of context) will be removed. Try /r/politicalhumor instead.
6. No forbidden titles, low-effort titles, or posts about Reddit cakedays. (See below).	No asking for upvotes (in any form), no "Cake Day" posts, and no posts to communicate with another Redditor. Posts with titles such as "I got banned from \/r/___" or "This got removed from \/r/___" are not allowed. For an inclusive list, please read the complete rules page. Low-effort titles, memetic titles, titles which circumvent other rules, and titles comprising excessive or disruptive emojis are similarly disallowed.
7. No gore or pornography.	Gore, pornography, and sexually graphic images are not allowed. Try /r/NSFWfunny. All other NSFW content must be tagged as such.
8. No unoriginal comics.	Comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays (measured using Pacific Time), and only by their original artists.
9. No pictures of just text.	Image-based submissions in which the humor can be conveyed via text alone are not allowed. This includes pictures of text with images that don't add necessary context, transcriptions of standup comedy (as with /r/standupshots), and screenshots of jokes. Here are some examples. Text posts using Reddit's native system are allowed.
10. No social media or electronic messaging content (including Reddit).	Social media content of any kind is not allowed. This includes anything from Reddit, Twitter, Tumblr, Facebook, YouTube, TikTok, or any form of "comments section" on the Internet, as well as content accompanied by text from those platforms. Images with SnapChat text added are allowed, as long as all UI elements have been removed. Please view our wiki for suggestions of where these submissions can be offered.

What do I do if I see a post that breaks the rules?	Click on the report button, and send us a message with a link to the comments of the post.
What should I do if I don't see my post in the new queue?	If your submission isn't showing up, please don't just delete it as that makes the filter hate you!
Instead send us a message with a link to the post. We'll unban it and it should get better. Please allow 10 minutes for the post to appear before messaging moderators

                    "selftext": "Hey there, folks!\n\nAs you're probably aware, there are quite a few very talented, very funny artists who offer their comics in /r/Funny… but there are also a growing number of \"comics\" here that are little more than low-effort ways of bypassing Rule 9. Moreover, subscribers have been expressing their concerns\u00b9 that comics (of both varieties) almost always eclipse every other variety of content offered here.\n\nBasically, on any given day, a poorly made comic featuring a stolen joke has a much better chance of being seen than something well-produced and original. Some of this is the fault of the \"Ennui Engine,\" but it's also the result of there being so many comics posted in /r/Funny.\n\nTo address this, we're going to experiment with a new approach:\n\nGoing forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays PDT (Pacific Daylight Time), and only by the people creating them.\u00b2\n\nOur hopes with this are is twofold: \n\n1. By limiting \"comic days\" to two days a week, other original content will get the chance that it deserves. \n\n2. Wednesdays and Sundays will come to highlight \u2013 with the help of discerning voters, of course \u2013 the best comics submitted to the subreddit.\u00b3 \n\nThose of you who have had nothing better to do than read our rules and stay up to date on all of our announcements will know that we aren't really changing much, but even so, we wanted to mention the update, explain the reasons behind it, and give folks the chance to discuss\u2074 everything.\n\nWe'll be trialing this over the next few weeks, and we may end up adjusting things\u2075 slightly. \n\nIf you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please feel free to share them here… and thank you, as always, for subscribing to /r/Funny!\n\n------\n\n^(\u00b9 These concerns have ranged from eloquent critiques to \"BLARGH BAD COMICS BAD!\")\n\n^(\u00b2 That is to say, comics may only be posted by the people creating the comics. We're not sure who creates Wednesdays and Sundays.)\n\n^(\u00b3 We thought about \"Comic Deathmatch Days\" as a label, but we didn't want comedians to get startled and start attacking each other.)\n\n^(\u2074 No doubt these discussions will be well-informed and well-thought-out, and definitely not text-based screaming matches.)\n\n^(\u2075
This turn of phrase wouldn't have sounded naughty without this footnote.)", class=\"md\">Hey there, folks!\n\nAs you&#39;re probably aware, there are quite a few very talented, very funny artists who offer their comics in /r/Funny… but there are also a growing number of &quot;comics&quot; here that are little more than low-effort ways of bypassing Rule 9. Moreover, subscribers have been expressing their concerns\u00b9 that comics (of both varieties) almost always eclipse every other variety of content offered here.\n\nBasically, on any given day, a poorly made comic featuring a stolen joke has a much better chance of being seen than something well-produced and original. Some of this is the fault of the &quot;Ennui Engine,&quot; but it&#39;s also the result of there being so many comics posted in /r/Funny.\n\nTo address this, we&#39;re going to experiment with a new approach:\n\nGoing forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays PDT (Pacific Daylight Time), and only by the people creating them.\u00b2\n\nOur hopes with this are is twofold:

\n\n<ol>\n
By limiting &quot;comic days&quot; to two days a week, other original content will get the chance that it deserves.  \n Wednesdays and Sundays will come to highlight \u2013 with the help of discerning voters, of course \u2013 the best comics submitted to the subreddit.\u00b3  \n
\nThose of you who have had nothing better to do than read our rules and stay up to date on all of our announcements will know that we aren&#39;t really changing much, but even so, we wanted to mention the update, explain the reasons behind it, and give folks the chance to discuss\u2074 everything.\n\nWe&#39;ll be trialing this over the next few weeks, and we may end up adjusting things\u2075 slightly.
\n\nIf you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please feel free to share them here… and thank you, as always, for subscribing to /r/Funny!\n\n<hr/>\n\n&l

&quot;BLARGH BAD COMICS BAD!&quot;</sup>\n\n<sup>\u00b2 That is to say, comics may only be posted by the people creating the comics. We&#39;re not sure who creates Wednesdays and Sundays.</sup>\n\n<sup>\u00b3 We thought about &quot;Comic Deathmatch Days&quot; as a label, but we didn&#39;t want comedians to get startled and start attacking each other.</sup>\n\n<sup>\u2074 No doubt these discussions will be well-informed and well-thought-out, and definitely not text-

Titolo: Going forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays.
Testo: Hey there, folks!

As you're probably aware, there are quite a few very talented, very funny artists who offer their comics in /r/Funny… but there are also a growing number of "comics" here that are little more than low-effort ways of bypassing Rule 9. Moreover, subscribers have been expressing their concerns[1] that comics
(of both varieties) almost always eclipse every other variety of content offered

Basically, on any given day, a poorly made comic featuring a stolen joke has a much better chance of being seen than something well-produced and original. Some of this is the fault of the "Ennui Engine," but it's also the result of there being so many comics posted in /r/Funny.

To address this, we're going to experiment with a new approach:

Going forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays PDT (Pacific Daylight Time), and only by the people creating them.[2]

Our hopes with this are is twofold:

1. By limiting "comic days" to two days a week, other original content will get the chance that it deserves.

2. Wednesdays and Sundays will come to highlight - with the help of discerning voters, of course - the best comics submitted to the subreddit.[3]

Those of you who have had nothing better to do than read our rules and stay up to date on all of our announcements will know that we aren't really changing much, but even so, we wanted to mention the update, explain the reasons behind it, and give folks the chance to discuss everything.

We'll be trialing this over the next few weeks, and we may end up adjusting things slightly.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please feel free to share them here… and thank you, as always, for subscribing to /r/Funny!

------

^(1 These concerns have ranged from eloquent critiques to "BLARGH BAD COMICS BAD!")

^(2 That is to say, comics may only be posted by the people creating the comics. We're not sure who creates Wednesdays and Sundays.)

^(3 We thought about "Comic Deathmatch Days" as a label, but we didn't want comedians to get startled and start attacking each other.)

^(No doubt these discussions will be well-informed and well-thought-out, and definitely not text-based screaming matches.)

^(This turn of phrase wouldn't have sounded naughty without this footnote.)

For an inclusive list, please read the complete rules page. Low-effort titles, memetic titles, titles which circumvent other rules, and titles comprising excessive or disruptive emojis are similarly disallowed. |

|9. No pictures of just text.|Image-based submissions in which the humor can be conveyed via text alone are not allowed. This includes pictures of text with images that don't add necessary context, transcriptions of standup comedy (as with /r/standupshots), and screenshots of jokes. Here are some examples. Text posts using Reddit's native system are allowed.|

Titolo: Going forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays.
Testo: Hey there, folks!

As you're probably aware, there are quite a few very talented, very funny artists who offer their comics in /r/Funny… but there are also a growing number of "comics" here that are little more than low-effort ways of bypassing Rule 9. Moreover, subscribers have been expressing their concerns[1] that comics (of both varieties) almost always eclipse every other variety of content offered here.

Basically, on any given day, a poorly made comic featuring a stolen joke has a much better chance of being seen than something well-produced and original. Some of this is the fault of the "Ennui Engine," but it's also the result of there being so many comics posted in /r/Funny.

To address this, we're going to experiment with a new approach:

Going forward, comics may only be posted on Wednesdays and Sundays PDT (Pacific Daylight Time), and only by the people creating them.[2]

Our hopes with this are is twofold:

1. By limiting "comic days" to two days a week, other original content will get the chance that it deserves.

2. Wednesdays and Sundays will come to highlight – with the help of discerning voters, of course – the best comics submitted to the subreddit.[3]

Those of you who have had nothing better to do than read our rules and stay up to date on all of our announcements will know that we aren't really changing much, but even so, we wanted to mention the update, explain the reasons behind it, and give folks the chance to discuss everything.

We'll be trialing this over the next few weeks, and we may end up adjusting things  slightly.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please feel free to share them here… and thank you, as always, for subscribing to /r/Funny!

------

BAD!")

^(² That is to say, comics may only be posted by the people creating the comics.
We're not sure who creates Wednesdays and Sundays.)

^(³ We thought about "Comic Deathmatch Days" as a label, but we didn't want comedians to get startled and start attacking each other.)

^( No doubt these discussions will be well-informed and well-thought-out, and definitely not text-based screaming matches.)

^( This turn of phrase wouldn't have sounded naughty without this footnote.)

Russia: conflitto russo-ucraino

Ucraina: conflitto russo-ucraino

Governo

Immigrati: una parola anch'essa diffusa tra i media italiani

Crisi: situazione attuale dell'Italia

Come possiamo intuire dal grafici soprastanti nel subreddit viene ampiamente discusso dell'argomento Ucraina nell'ultimo periodo. Inoltre troviamo anche tante occorrenze riguardo Governo e Crisi. Tuttavia, a differenza di termini come "Sicilia" e "Catania" che ho voluto analizzare per curiosità e per cui potevamo aspettarci numeri bassi, per nostra sorpresa notiamo che negli ultimi post si è parlato pochissimo di Covid, il che ci aiuta ad intuire che le attenzioni italiane si siano spostate sulla crisi di governo e sul conflitto russo-ucraino.

3   Conclusione

L'utilizzo delle api Reddit non è molto difficile. Infatti ottenere l'access token non è molto complicato ed utilizzare le api provviste da reddit risulta molto semplice grazie all'ampia documentazione provvista da quest'ultimo. Inoltre è molto piacevole utilizzare le api di terze parti Praw che rendono il tutto decisamente molto più semplice ed alla portata di tutti. L'unica pecca di Reddit è quella di non poter ordinare e/o filtrare le submissions (post) per data, infatti per fare ciò è necessario controllare la data di creazione di ogni singolo submission, il che rende il tutto più complicato. Tuttavia è stato possibile fare una semplice ma interessante analisi dati sul subreddit Italy che ci ha fornito, anche se in piccola parte, alcune idee sulle argomentazioni principali del subreddit.
